

SIGURD ANDERSON
GOVERNOR

PIERRE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, There are presently about four hundred thousand Indians in the United States; and

WHEREAS, there are now approximately thirty-five thousand Indians in South Dakota constituting an important segment of our population; and

WHEREAS, the American Indian has made outstanding contributions to our state and nation both in time of war and peace; and

WHEREAS, the American people owe a debt of gratitude to the first Americans;

Now, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of September, 1952, as in South Dakota, and urge all South Dakotans to observe the month according to their own convictions, beliefs and personal experiences.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 6th day of September, 1952.
